

Best Practice-I

Title of Practice: - Announcement of Library Best User award

Objectives:-

- To encourage students community to make best use of the Library resources
- To inculcate the habit of studying in a group than individual study
- To inculcate the spirit of competition in using the library resources

3. Context:-

We are proud and egoistic to state that, our college library is rich with all facilities. But after the pandemic norms students become homesick and negligent in using the library resources. Referring to the analysis report of various findings from different organizations and staff of the college values are declining and students mindset are getting diversified due to the advancement of mobile technology and pandemic norms. To shape them morally, ethically, socially responsible citizen of our country and to make them for best use of the library resources, IQAC of the college decides to continue the practice of awarding library best users.

4. Practice :

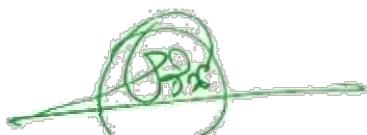

In the beginning notice was served to the students about the awards. College selected three students as best users on the bases of their attendance, use of the resources and the time spent in the library. Three awards with cash prize of Rupees. 500, 300 and 200 respectively are distributed to the students Kum. Pooja Akki, Kum Kum. Nayana R Bidari and Kum.Vidya Adivapanavar.

5. Evidence of Success :

Since the announcement of awards, the attendance of the students to the library and use of the library resources has considerably increased and students are very happy with the awards.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:-

Initially, students mindset was lean to adopt this announcement but consistent guidance and motivations of mentors and staff members, gradually students taken interest in using this opportunity. Necessary financial assistance is taken care by college to implement this award practice with support of staff members. We have not come across any financial constraint or any problem.

Best Practice-II

Title of Practice: - Free Distribution of College Uniform To Meritorious Students.

Objectives:-

- To Motivate the high merit students to join our college
- To encourage the poor but meritorious students to continue their higher education.
- To enhance the percentage of admission of girls to higher education.

3. Context:-

As per the decision made in the IQAC meeting about free distribution of college uniform to meritorious students, the Co-Ordinator of IQAC discussed with all the HOD's and requested all of them to support for this practice.

4. Practice :

In the beginning of admission a notice was displayed for the kind information of students who visit the college for seeking information for taking admission. The Principal of college and the staff members come forward to sponsor the uniforms to six students of arts and six students of commerce. Total 12 students are distributed free uniforms with support of teachers.

5. Evidence of Success :

Kum. Aishwary P Choudimani has joined to B com I semester with 96% of marks in PUC and Kum. Pavitra L has joined to B A I semester with 93% marks in PUC, the top 6th student in commerce has scored 91% and in arts the 6th student has a scored 92% and on overall high merit many students have joined to our college.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:-

Necessary financial assistance is taken care by the college to implement this practice with support of staff members. We have not come across any financial constraint or any problem.
